Biennial Specialty Shows and Sweepstakes

Best of Breed and Best of Opposite Sex

The Northern California Siberian Husky Club held its Fifteenth and Sixteenth Biennial Specialty Shows, Seventh Sweepstakes and Second Back to Back Shows on April 26th and 27th.

Set up for the weekend began Thursday with the setting up of grooming tents using canopies on loan to our club from the Bay Area Siberian Husky Club. Three canopies were set up and enclosed with side curtains to keep the dog hair contained. The canopies quickly multiplied on Saturday morning through the generosity of club members and exhibitors adding three more canopies making a spacious grooming area.

12-18 Month Dog Class

Set up continued early Friday morning with the conformation ring, trophy table, raffle table, and ex-pens. The lovely courtyard at Inn Marin was soon transformed into a dog show site. In no time at all the club members, with the help of many of our exhibitors, were ready to begin Friday afternoon judging.

Sweepstakes Judging- Sheila Kanzler

Due to our large entry this year, Friday's judging began at noon with Breeder Judge Stephanie Hamblin-Barnhill stepping into the ring to begin the dog class judging. After evaluating her entries Stephanie awarded Kayenta's Xane Grey from the Open Dog class Winners Dog. (for a complete list of show results please check out our website at www.ncshc.com) The ring was then turned over to Breeder Judge Dawn Eisele to officiate over the girls. Dawn's choice for Winners Bitch was Kayenta's Wildestar Mink from the Open Bitch classes. Stephanie then stepped back in the ring for judging of the Best of Breed competition. From a total of 23 specials Best of Breed was awarded to GCh Melrose Walk The Line. Best of Opposite Sex went to GCh Melrose And Noatak's Timrjan. An interesting fact, the Best of Breed and Best of Opposite Sex winners are littermates. Best of Winners was Winners Dog.

Friday evening was a bit different than our usual Hospitality Barbecue as we invited all exhibitors to join us for a Barbecue Banquet. Club members Bonnie and Josh Wilson barbecued with the help of William and Bonnie Haar with other club members providing salads, drinks and other side dishes. The Club provided the BBQ items and the desserts. Thanks again to the generosity of our exhibitors who also brought many side dishes to add to the dinner. There were plenty of wonderful dishes and more food than everyone could eat. This different style of Banquet appeared to be a great success!

Bred by Exhibitor Dog Class

Saturday began early with Sweepstakes judged by Breeder Judge Sheila Kanzler. Sheila's selection for Best in Sweeps Puppy from the 12-15 month class was Kayenta's Funfinity and Best of Opposite Puppy in Sweeps from the 15-18 month class Charlyn's Dark Side Of The Moon. Best in Veterans Sweeps was awarded to GCh Karnovanda's Your Teddy Bear and Best of Opposite in Veteran Sweeps was Ch. Tunguska Mist Behavin' both from the 9-11 years classes.

Regular breed judging began soon after with Dawn Eisele judging the dog entry. Her choice for Winners Dog was Wolverineen Yukon Quest from the Bred By Exhibitor class. Then it was on to the girls.

Stephanie Hamblin-Barnhill was the judge for girls on Saturday and chose Couloir's Lucky Charm from the Bred By Exhibitor class as her Winners Bitch.

Once again Dawn took over the ring, this time to preside over the Best of Breed judging. For the second day, GCh. Melrose Walk The Line was awarded Best of Breed with litter sister GCh. Melrose And Noatak's Timrjan going Best of Opposite Sex. Best of Winners was awarded to Winners Dog.

Throughout both days and during the banquet our newest Club Member Randee McQueen ran raffles and silent auctions with many unique and lovely items. Once again we could not have asked for better weather with plenty of sunshine and mild temperatures. California was very inviting to those folks driving in from States which still had snow on the ground.

Thanks to all the Club Members and all our wonderful Exhibitors who once again came together to put on another great specialty. Hope to see everyone in Colorado in 2014 and again in Sunny California in 2015.

Judge Dawn Eisele
