MUSHING BOOT CAMP

By Cheryl Liddle

Several of Central Oregon Mushers headed to Chester CA to attend the last Mushing Boot Camp outside of Togo MN. It was 20 years ago the first Boot camp was held at Fort Ord CA. So, it was special that there were 4 of us who participated in the first one and the last one. Barbera, John Kathy and myself. OH and none of us aged HAHA

It was a great group of people and dogs, great food, great trails and rain. You know that is the wet stuff that falls out of the sky

20 years older (ouch) and a few surgeries later, Jamie and Ann gave us a little different perspective on how well trained a dog team can and may need to be. Definitely something to think about. That day may come.

Ann and Jamie covered line out training, individual pull training, harness fitting, stressed running your team on by your truck, head on passing, each with their own ideas. Whatever we asked there was a solution for it.

They worked with all of us individually and as group sharing great insights to our dogs and team. Adapting training techniques to each of our individual situations.

I was just happy to have 6 days off work, not having to sit in front of a computer. Four days of just focusing on my dogs, no cooking, no cleaning, no home projects in the presence of two great dog trainers. Came home with correctly adjusted saddle back harness, focused training, a view of my team from two sets of very experienced eyes.

What a vacation!!

Cheryl is a former member of the Northern California Siberian Husky who has since moved North to ~~Alaska~~ Oregon for more property/space to run her dogs.
