3-6 month puppy class

(from the 8/11/18 meeting)

Donna bragged that

🔊 In the past few months, GCHG Karnovanda's Stephen Coldbear, handled by his co-owner Delbert Thacker, has gone Reserve Best in Show twice, won the Working Group 7 times, and had 10+ other group placements.

🔊 And, although not brags, in the past few months we have said "goodbye" to Ch. Karnovanda's Simon, and Rushmore, Ch. Karnovanda's North By Northwest.

🔊 Henley became Ch. Karnovanda's Deperado by finishing with another major, and he has come home to California.

🔊 And one year after we lost Ted, GCH Karnovanda's Your Teddy Bear represented the Siberian on the AKC website in honor of "Work Like A Dog Day".

Judy bragged that

🔊 Kate, her Fresian, is confirmed pregnant.

Kelly bragged that

🔊 Tenor the Basenji, finished his championship with back to back majors at Woofstock

🔊 Jaycee, Serenade's Midnight Dreamer, won Best of Breed and a Group 1 in the 4-6 puppy competition at the Richmond Dog Fanciers handled by her co-owner Lori Chou and then on to Best Puppy in Show handled by myself.

Helen bragged that

🔊 Rowan went Winners Bitch at the Lower Columbia Siberian Husky Club Specialty for a 5 point major handled by Kathy Regan.

NCSHC's 28th B Match 2018

By Kelly Collins

BOB Puppy - Couloir's Who Tells Your Story

BOS Puppy - Artika-Couloir's Running Against the Wind

BOB Adult - Opium For Nanook Anrus House; BOS Adult - Sik-Itarad-Ad-Astra Anrus House

Best Junior - Genieva Bartley

The Northern California Siberian Husky Club held its Twenty-Eighth B match on July 29, 2018. This year we were at a new location, Wilson Park in Vallejo, CA. Although it took a while for the sun to finally make an appearance, when it did we were very happy for the wonderful shade tree at the park. With a playground for the kids and plenty of room to set up canopies, our new location seemed to be a hit.

The match began, as has become our tradition, with a handling class. Lori Chou put handlers through their paces as a warm for the match judging to come.

Kathleen Davis of Davishire Great Danes was the judge for the 2018 match. With an entry of 29 she began her judging with the puppies. The judge was able to see past all the puppy antics and selected Couloir's Who Tells Your Story, owned by Lori and Gabrielle Chou, Brooke Bigley and MaryAnn Mundy as Best in Match Puppy. Litter brother Couloir-Artika's Running Against The Wind, same owners and Daniel Mundy was Best of Opposite Sex Puppy in Match.

Following a lunch break it was time for the adults. Fortunately a bit better behave then the puppies, proving that we can train our Siberians. Ms. Davis' selection for Best in Match Adult was Opium for Nanook Anrus House owned by Carlos Rivera and Tyrell Woods. Best of Opposite Sex Adult in Match was awarded to Sik-Itarad-Ad-Astra Anrus House a half sister to the Best in Match adult and owned by Diane Willett and Carlos Rivera.

Then it was on to the Veteran and Altered Classes. Best Veteran was awarded to GCh. Karnovanda's Ceilidh and Best in Altered Classes was awarded to Karnovanda's Caena Celyn expertly handled by Gabrielle Chou. Both are owned by Helen Hamilton and Celyn co-owned by Sarah Hubbach and Judith Russell.

Following the Veterans and Altered it was back to the puppies as our braces stepped into the ring. Our braces were made up of 8 month old siblings and 3 month old siblings. Both braces did very well and at times moved like one unit. Of course they also at times were jumping back and forth over each other and leaping into the air. Many laughs could be heard at ringside as the puppies strutted their stuff.

The last class of the day was junior showmanship. Best Junior was awarded to Genieva Bartley handling Serenade's Don't Stop Believen'.

Thanks to everyone who participated in our 2018 Match. Hope to see everyone at the 2019 Specialty show in April.
