GOLDEN GATE KENNEL CLUB

By Kelly Collins

Friday January 25, 2019 found club members of the Northern California Siberian Husky Club once again setting up a club bench for the Golden Gate Kennel Club dog show in San Francisco.

The Golden Gate Kennel Club show is one of three benched shows still be held in the U.S. and the only bench show on the West Coast. Westminster Kennel Club and the Kennel Club of Philadelphia (The National Dog Show) being the other two shows.

This year we had a small bench with only two club members and four dogs entered, although one remained home due to lack of hair, but we still made up most of the Siberian entry.

This was the first Golden Gate appearance for all three of the dogs and Henley quickly discovered a good way to get attention was to go out into the flow of people and stand in their way, so they had to reach down and pet him. Then when they stopped petting him he would nudge their hand to try to get them to continue petting. My two youngsters did very well with all the attention and meeting the crowds.

We did well in the show ring as well with Henley taking Best of Breed both days and a Group 3 on Saturday. My girl Jaycee beat her sister taking Winners both days and Best of Winners, Best of Opposite Sex and Owner Handler Best of Breed on Saturday and Best of Opposite Sex and Puppy Best of Breed on Sunday going on to a Puppy Group Two. Thanks to Diane Willett for coming out and helping me handle and to Diane and my mom for helping with crowd control on the benches.

Although not a large show, the Golden Gate Kennel Club does attract large public crowds. This is always a great opportunity to meet and educate people on our breed.

Henley attracting the crowds

Not to be outdone, Jaycee has her own fan club.

Journee wondering when it is her turn.

A good view of the bench with all the ribbons!

Henley would prefer it never ends!
