2019 Biennial Specialty Shows

The Northern California Siberian Husky Club held the 22nd and 23rd biennial specialties and 10th sweepstakes on April 26 and 27th. This year we were in a new location at the Solano County Fairgrounds in Vallejo.

Our new show site offered plenty of green grass for a large ring, exhibitor set ups and exercise areas. Some of the advantages of our new site were unloading at ring side, parking very near the show area, and setups could remain overnight. Our new site seemed to be a hit, although the ground was a bit bumpy from the torrential rains we had in the several months proceeding our specialty.

Friday judging began with Carol Preble judging the dog classes. Carol's choice for winners dog was Wolverineen the Last Jedi from the bred by exhibitor class. Reserve winners dog was awarded to Melrose Fate Of The Midnight Sun from the Open dog class.

Next in the ring to judge bitches was Julia Rylander. Julia's choice for winners bitch was Kochevoey's Black Ice Ahead also from the bred by exhibitor class. Reserve winners bitch went to Kayenta's Wildestar Forest Sprite from the Am. Bred class. Both winners dog and winners bitch finished their championships.

Carol was back in the ring following the bitch judging for the Best of Breed competition. Carol's choices from a wonderful lineup of specials was Best of Breed - Ch. Couloir's Snowonder, Best of Opposite Sex – Ch. Karnovanda's Desperado, Best of Winners was winners dog.

Saturday morning began with sweepstakes judge Jennifer Corr judging puppies and veterans. After being patient with several silly puppies who were enjoying the cool morning, Jennifer selected Kayenta's Takhari Overdrive as Best in Puppy Sweeps. Best of opposite was awarded to Couloir's American Dreamer. The veterans were just slightly more composed then the puppies. Jennifer chose GCHB Tunguska's Swingin On A Star as Best Veteran and Ch Couloir's Shaken Not Stirred O'Topaz for Best of Opposite. Jennifer also officiated over the Junior Showmanship competition and awarded Best Junior to Katelyn Warren and Reserve Best Junior to Selah Fuller.

It was then Julia's turn back in the ring for dog judging. Saturday's winners dog was Charlyn's Keep Your Hands Off My Stock. Reserve winners dog from the 6-9 puppy class was Kayenta's Without Fail.

Carol returned to the ring to award Couloir's Who Tells Your Story winners bitch from the bred by exhibitor class. Reserve winners bitch also came from the 6-9 puppy class and was awarded to Winter Storm Of The Midnight Sun.

Then it was on to Saturday's best of breed judging with Julia Rylander officiating. Best of Breed was a repeat with Ch. Couloir's Snowonder taking the top prize. Best of Opposite Sex was awarded to Friday's winners dog Wolverineen The Last Jedi. Best of winners was winners dog. A complete list of winners can be found on page 5 of the newsletter.

Friday evening after judging we were able to once again have our famous Hospitality BBQ. Club members Kathy and Glenn Henderson once again provided tri tip and sausages with club members filling in with side dishes and desserts. The BBQ was well attended and all exhibitors left with a paw print magnet, handmade by club member Judy Tamagni, as a keepsake.

Our trophy chair Lori Chou found wonderful trophies from Vulcanix Art which were a huge hit with the exhibitors.

Saturday ended with a No Host Pizza Party at Round Table pizza located next door to the host hotel. This was a great opportunity to wind down from the weekend and enjoying visiting with the judges.

Thanks to Selah Fuller for taking ringside candids and graciously allowed them to be used for the newsletter.

Thanks to everyone who travelled to our 2019 Specialty shows, our show would not be nearly as fun without the support of all of our wonderful exhibitors. Congratulations to all the winners and....

See everyone next year in Colorado!
