AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism. The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

Please keep this ground transportation time in mind when making your airline reservations, and allow yourself adequate time to get to the show site. For groups arriving at the same time, you might wish to get together and rent cars.

THE BARBECUE IS BACK!

We are so happy to invite all exhibitors to join us on Friday evening, after judging, to join us for a barbecue. Our barbecue tradition began with our Eighth Specialty in 2001—the first at Inn Marin. Unfortunately, with Covid we were forced to retire this event, at least temporarily. The Club is delighted to reprise this tradition at our 2025 Specialties thanks to volunteers Kim Thomsen and Michael Williamson, supported by Club Members.

Please join us for camaraderie, relaxation, and food! All we ask is that you let us know how many of you will join us. Please email the number of barbecue diners from your group who will be joining us by April 16, 2025 to Donna Beckman at mistral4@aol.com.

We look forward to seeing you all soon!
